

Erasmus + Call for proposals 2020 — Deadline 5th February 2020

Project Idea: Young people on the Move

Action: Erasmus KA1 /Mobility projects for young people and youth workers

Field: Youth

Activity: Youth Exchange

Main aim of the project: Enhance young participants' capacity for organizing youth projects and initiatives.

Summary: The aim of this Youth Exchange is to gather young people who are active in the field of volunteerism and keen on getting engaged to youth projects both at local, national and international level. During the Exchange, the participants will have the opportunity to explore the issue of youth work in their countries, learn about strategies and policies concerning young people as well as inspire each other for further development on the issue of youth work. The project aims to motivate the participants evolve their interest for youth projects into a more structured path in their professional life providing them with tools and knowledge about youth work, the function of a youth organisation as well as assisting them on acquiring skills and competences that are closely related to youth activities.

As the project seeks to enhance their competences and knowledge, the participants will attend workshops about youth work and the function of youth organisation, will organize presentations for youth policies on their countries and will also get the opportunity to interact and discuss with people active in the field of youth. Visits to local youth associations and NGOs who organize youth activities will provide the participants with added knowledge and experience

Impact: The “Young people on the Move” will work as a pillar for the participants to turn from youth participants to Youth Ambassadors and future youth workers. The long term aim of the project is to inspire and provide them with vision to activate themselves in the field of youth work, youth policy and youth organizations. The Youth Exchange will create the space for generating ideas for youth projects and set the base for future cooperation between the participants. Active citizenship, empowerment of participation in the social life and enhancement of their European identity are goals to be achieved through the project which perfectly match with the priorities and aims of the Erasmus+ in the Youth sector, especially the youth mobility activities.

Target group: Young people active in the field of volunteerism and keen on youth work

Consortium: Organisations active in the field of youth work at European level
